

THE CITY OF PORT ANGELES IS PURSUING HOUSING FOR ALL

2023 PORT ANGELES MUNICIPAL CODE AMENDMENT

Email comments to City staff at ced@cityofpa.us and attend the continued public hearing at City Hall on February 22nd at 6:00PM.

The City of Port Angeles is amending the Port Angeles Municipal Code to reduce barriers to housing production, build residential capacity, promote flexibility, and make development easier for all. We want to hear from you about housing in the City and what you would change or preserve in the code. Help the City move forward knowing what is most important to the community.

TODAY, DENSITY IN PORT ANGELES LOOKS LIKE THIS:

WHAT WILL IT LOOK LIKE TOMORROW?

Please join the City in working together to shape the future of Port Angeles by providing your input during the public process.

Or reach City staff at (360) 417-4750 or ced@cityofpa.us

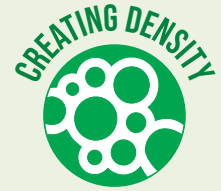

PURSUING HOUSING FOR ALL

Problem: Code acts as a barrier to development of housing
Solution: Remove barriers through deregulation

Problem: Unattainable housing stock
Solution: Promote housing for all residents

Problem: Low density limits development potential
Solution: Increase density to increase development potential

Problem: High costs slows housing development
Solution: Reduce cost of compliance

Problem: Housing is constrained by rigid zoning requirements
Solution: Provide options for diverse housing types

Problem: Technical regulations are difficult to understand
Solution: Make code easier to use

MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

The City of Port Angeles is working to amend the Port Angeles Municipal Code (PAMC) to reduce barriers to housing production, build residential capacity, promote flexibility, and make development easier for all.

As a resident of Port Angeles, you can help to determine its future. The City is here to empower you to create the community you want to live in. To do so, share your perspective on housing in Port Angeles and what you would like to see changed or preserved in the PAMC. Help us move forward knowing what is most important to you.
